Holy Communion – This is a reminder that Holy Communion, in the Catholic Church, is reserved to actively practicing Catholics. If you are not Catholic or have not been actively practicing your faith, then please refrain from receiving Communion. If you would like to learn how to be welcomed to full Communion, we would love to help. All you need to do is contact a priest. Our contact info is in this bulletin.

A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Hello everyone!

I am writing this pastor message on Monday 11/7, so although the election has occurred as you read this message, it has not at the time I write it.

This being said, two things. First, I hope people took seriously the message from our Bishop that was attached to every bulletin last weekend as they voted. The more people follow the will of God is given us by our shepherds, the better off the world will be. It's real simple.

Secondly, while I am writing this pastor message before the election, I already know who's going to be the boss after the election. I do not spend extensive amounts of time studying polls or probably outcomes, but nevertheless I already know as I write this on Monday, who is the boss after the election on Tuesday.

Take a guess.

It's Jesus. Jesus is the boss. Jesus is the alpha and omega, the beginning and the end. All things were created through Him. All things were created for Him. He is before all things; and in Him all things have their being.

He's the boss. Not just of the US, but of the world and even the whole universe. He is in charge; and it's either His way or the highway. No other options, or candidates or choices.

This is a very good thing that He is in charge. He is a lot smarter than us, more loving, more patient and knows what is going to make us happy...a lot more than we ourselves know.

So give Him thanks today. He is a good boss.

Have a good week everyone. Stay close to Jesus. When we please Him, we have pleased He whom it is most important to please.

Peace!!!

Fr. Rossi

Outreach & Social Ministry – 98 lunches were served on Tuesday, November 8. 80 dinners were served on Wednesday, November 9. Thank you to all the dedicated volunteers who serve God's people.

Walk for Life: I want to thank all the parishioners of St. Peter's for supporting me in this walk. You have contributed $829.00 in supporting the Tri-Cities

Pregnancy Center. Every year the Center sponsors a "Walk for Life" campaign to help raise awareness of the need to help young girls and women of all ages who are pregnant and have made the choice for life. Once again, thank you for your generous support. Fr. Frank

Hats and Gloves Collection – We have collected and purchased enough hats and gloves to insure that every student at Chimborazo Elementary School will receive a set. We offer a sincere 'thank you' to everyone in our three parishes for your support with this initiative. It's been a joy working with you to make this happen for the children. We all know that when we work to help God's little ones, we just can't go wrong. We know that we will all have a warm spot in our hearts for helping to keep the children warm this winter. This is a great way to begin the Holiday season and we wish each of you God's blessings. Sincerely with love, Lee and Beverly Williams
