A MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Hello All.

First let me say a big Happy Father's Day to all our dads. It is a tough job these days being a dad. First of all, our culture rejects almost all and any idea of authority and supervision, which is the primary role of our dads. So they in turn get a lot of grief just for doing what God wants them to do. Nevertheless we are very grateful for the ones who do it every day and in doing so live up to the title 'father'.

Second, today at St. Patrick we heard from a young man Patrick Clark who will be leaving to enter into the missionary field in Honduras with the Missionaries of Christ. Please support him and the missionaries in their ministry. Please pray for them and for all the missionaries who serve around the world in these important but difficult works. Also, please consider supporting Patrick and the Missionaries financially. To support them, you can go to www.patrickinhonduras.wordpress.com and make a donation. Thank you.

Finally, the date for the bible study led by our seminarian Deacon Cassidy, has been changed to Thursdays beginning June 21. Deacon Cassidy will begin a 6-part bible study beginning Thursday, June 21 at 6 pm at St. Patrick and will study the St. John's first letter (not the Gospel...the first letter). Come and study this excellent letter from our Bible, you are guaranteed to grow closer to God.

Have a great week everyone. — Fr. Rossi
